

The Author's ADVOCATE

Special Newsletter

November 2008

Published for the authors and associates of Infinity Publishing

Give special friends the gift that makes the dream of publishing their book come true... ...by giving them a gift certificate to have their book published and distributed by Infinity Publishing.

This is the ideal gift for friends and relatives who have been seriously thinking about writing a book or have a finished manuscript, but they haven't succeeded in connecting with an interested agent and publisher. Your encouraging gift will make it possible for them to have their book published and available for sale in a matter of a few weeks. Tell them, "I believe in you!"

As you know from experience, Infinity Publishing is a First Amendment press engaged in author-originated publishing since our start of business in 1997, whereby our authors retain all rights and only grant Infinity permission to publish and distribute their books under our Publishing Agreement, in exchange for royalties paid monthly on every book sold. We have approximately 5,000 titles in our unique book publishing system—we produce quality books on recycled paper using our own high-speed digital printers at our plant and office facility in West Conshohocken, PA.

Under the provisions of our unique publishing model, authors pay a one-time setup fee of $499 to have their books published and distributed by Infinity Publishing. However, when you purchase our Book Publishing Gift Certificate, the cost of the setup fee is only $399 for non-Infinity authors—$349 if the gift certificate is purchased by an Infinity author—and although this seasonal offer expires on January 1, 2009, the certificate is valid for manuscript submission for two years, with extensions granted upon request. The gift certificate must be attached to the Publishing Agreement at the time of submission and may not be used in conjunction with other Infinity Publishing discounts or coupons.

This is your opportunity to give an aspiring author the gift of having his or her book published by an author-friendly publisher. The kindness of your giving will help to make dreams come true, and recipients will surely appreciate your thoughtfulness for years to come. To brighten their holidays and make their dream of becoming a published author happen, just complete the Book Publishing Gift Certificate Order Form available as a printer-friendly download on our website at www.InfinityPublishing.com.

Of course, this may also be the perfect gift to give to yourself to publish your next book. Self-gifting is a good thing because you usually get just what you want! Current Infinity-published authors benefit from discounts when they publish additional titles or when they refer a friend, thusly they may purchase this seasonal Book Publishing Gift Certificate for $349. Throughout the last decade we have often extended better benefits for our authors than we do for the general public—like the free copies of their books that Infinity authors receive when they register in a timely fashion for our annual conference at Valley Forge.

Naturally we would appreciate your sharing this issue of the Author's Advocate with friends who might be shopping for the perfect gift for the writer in their life, who is aspiring to become a published author. Also remember to share this with your writer friends who have been asking you about your Infinity publishing experience. This is one gift that is certain to brighten the holidays for writers who receive the commitment of having his or her book published by Infinity.

Infinity's Book Publishing Gift Certificate Terms and Conditions

Infinity's Book Publishing Gift Certificate: in the spirit of the holidays, we have discounted Infinity's $499 one-time setup fee. At the special price of $399—$349 if purchased by a current Infinity author—this seasonal offer is valid until January 1, 2009; but the certificate may be redeemed with manuscript submission any time, within two years. Think of this as our way of stimulating the economy, and inspiring authors to finish and publish their books.

Infinity's setup fee covers the cost of the following: accepting author's submission; assigning the ISBN, identifying Infinity Publishing as publisher of record; reviewing book file formatting to assure compliance with production requirements; professionally designed cover art created especially for the book; converting the author's word processor book file into the digitized file our high-speed digital printer requires; adding the title into Infinity's unique book publishing system; providing hard copy proof books for the author's approval and/or to return for corrections as per author's instructions; setting up the author's account for monthly publisher's statement and royalty check; making the book available for sale to the public by adding the title, book info, and author's bio to Infinity's online bookstore at www.BuyBooksOnTheWeb.com; listing the author's book with Books-In-Print; providing books needed for enrollment in Amazon's Advantage program; guaranteeing that books may be returned by bookstores at no cost to the author; providing listing info for online booksellers; prompt and accurate order fulfillment; live customer support. By publishing under Infinity's non-exclusive publishing agreement, the author retains all rights; and with the author's extended permission to publish and distribute the book, it will never go out of print.

Infinity provides Become a Published Author, an easy-to-follow guidebook with instructions, in order to help prepare your book file for publication. Approximately 6 to 9 weeks after the completed book file has been submitted and accepted, the author receives proof books to carefully review for any errors and omissions. The author's signed approval form is submitted only after corrections have been made to complete satisfaction. At the same time, the author receives a complimentary copy of My Book's Published – Now What??? This book answers authors' questions about what is needed to start promoting their books. Each author is responsible for their book's promotion. Infinity does not provide marketing efforts for your book; however, we do offer ongoing insight from experts who will put you on the right path to achieve publishing success with your book.

Thank You for publishing With Infinity

'Tis the traditional Thanksgiving season for reflecting on the many things in life for which we are thankful. On behalf of your publishing family at Infinity Publishing we are most grateful for your selection of us as your publisher of record; and especially appreciative of our authors who have published more than one book with us. This tells us that you are satisfied with our service and the uniqueness of our continually evolving publishing model that clearly sets us apart from all the rest.

This is difficult for a writer to admit, but words fail me when I try to express our deepest gratitude for many of our authors who have taken the time to share with us all the innovative methods you have employed to promote and market your books. Freely sharing your assortment of successful efforts enables us to in turn, share what works, with all our authors. Likewise, learning what hasn't worked is equally important, as it allows us to inform others about what's not worth trying.

A special thank you to the hundreds of Infinity authors who have invested their time in attending one of our conferences or gatherings throughout the years. Indeed we are most grateful for your repeat participation at our various publishing events. We have always welcomed the opportunity to meet and talk with as many of our authors in person, as is possible. Your input continues to help us to tweak our publishing models and be even more responsive to your needs. Thank you for the kindness of your understanding that we have absolutely no influence over some aspects of publishing and distribution—but we keep trying.

Your unsolicited acknowledgment of our ongoing successful efforts to create an author-friendly publishing environment is especially meaningful to us. We are grateful for the wide diversity of our authors; you have blessed us with an endless variety of books on an astonishing assortment of topics and genre, to publish on your behalf.

Numerous times I've mentioned how very appreciative we are of our authors, because if authors didn't write books we wouldn't have any books to publish! Thank you for being an author and publishing with us.

Have a naturally nice November. Enjoy often ... John